

Standards/Interpretations Issued Not Yet Effective as at 9 May 2024

This document is updated quarterly on the following dates: 31 March, 30 June, 30 September and 31 December, and whenever a new standard or amendment is issued by the IASB.

IAS 8 requires that, when an entity has not applied a new Standard or Interpretation that has been issued but is not yet effective, the entity shall disclose:

- (a) this fact; and
- (b) known or reasonably estimable information relevant to assessing the possible impact that application of the new Standard or Interpretation will have on the entity's financial statements in the period of initial application.

The standard requires you to consider the following in your disclosure:

- (a) the title of the new Standard or Interpretation;
- (b) the nature of the impending change or changes in accounting policy;
- (c) the date by which application of the Standard or Interpretation is required;
- (d) the date as at which it plans to apply the Standard or Interpretation initially; and
- (e) either:
 - a discussion of the impact that initial application of the Standard or Interpretation is expected to have on the entity's financial statements; or
 - if that impact is not known or reasonably estimable, a statement to that effect.
- (f) for the current period and each prior period presented, to the extent practicable, the amount of the adjustment:
 - for each financial statement line item affected; and
 - if IAS 33 Earnings per Share applies to the entity, for basic and diluted earnings per share.

Below is a list of the current standards and interpretations that have been issued, but may not be effective. Please ensure your disclosure is updated for any new Standards or Interpretations that apply to you.

Standard	Details of amendment	Annual periods beginning on or after
IFRS 7 Financial Instruments: Disclosures	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Supplier Finance Arrangements: The amendment supplements existing disclosure requirements by requiring a company to disclose specific information about its supplier finance arrangements that enables users of financial statements to assess the effects of those arrangements on the company's liabilities and cash flows and on the company's exposure to liquidity risk. 	1 January 2024
IFRS 10 Consolidated Financial Statements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sale or Contribution of Assets between an Investor and its Associate or Joint Venture (Amendments to IFRS 10 and IAS 28): Narrow scope amendment address an acknowledged inconsistency between the requirements in IFRS 10 and those in IAS 28 (2011), in dealing with the sale or contribution of assets between an investor and its associate or joint venture. 	The effective date of this amendment has been deferred indefinitely until further notice
IFRS 16 Leases	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lease Liability in a Sale and Leaseback: The narrow-scope amendment requires a seller-lessee in a sale and leaseback transaction to determine 'lease payments' or 'revised lease payments' in a way that the seller-lessee would not recognise any amount of a gain or loss relating to the right of use retained by the seller-lessee. The new requirement does not prevent the seller-lessee from recognising in profit or loss any gain or loss relating to the partial or full termination of a lease. 	1 January 2024

IFRS 19 Subsidiaries without Public Accountability: Disclosures	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> IFRS 19 permits eligible subsidiaries to use IFRS Accounting Standards with reduced disclosures. Applying IFRS 19 will reduce the costs of preparing subsidiaries' financial statements while maintaining the usefulness of the information for users of their financial statements. Subsidiaries are eligible to apply IFRS 19 if they do not have public accountability and their parent company applies IFRS Accounting Standards in their consolidated financial statements. A subsidiary does not have public accountability if it does not have equities or debt listed on a stock exchange and does not hold assets in a fiduciary capacity for a broad group of outsiders. 	1 January 2027
IAS 1 Presentation of Financial Statements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-current: Narrow-scope amendments to IAS 1 to clarify how to classify debt and other liabilities as current or non-current. Disclosure of Accounting Policies: The amendments require companies to disclose their material accounting policy information rather than their significant accounting policies, with additional guidance added to the Standard to explain how an entity can identify material accounting policy information with examples of when accounting policy information is likely to be material. Non-current liabilities with Covenants: The amendment clarifies that only covenants with which an entity is required to comply on or before the reporting date affect the classification of a liability as current or non-current, with additional guidance to explain how an entity should disclose information in the notes to understand the risk that non-current liabilities with covenants could become repayable within twelve months. 	1 January 2024 1 January 2023 1 January 2024

IAS 7 Statement of Cash Flows	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Supplier Finance Arrangements: The amendment supplements existing disclosure requirements by requiring a company to disclose specific information about its supplier finance arrangements that enables users of financial statements to assess the effects of those arrangements on the company's liabilities and cash flows and on the company's exposure to liquidity risk. 	1 January 2024
IAS 8 Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Definition of Accounting Estimates: The amendments clarify how companies should distinguish changes in accounting policies from changes in accounting estimates, by replacing the definition of a change in accounting estimates with a new definition of accounting estimates. Under the new definition, accounting estimates are "monetary amounts in financial statements that are subject to measurement uncertainty". The requirements for recognising the effect of change in accounting prospectively remain unchanged. 	1 January 2023
